Lebanon Parks Department Christmas Parade Regulations Release and Waiver Form

Safety of all parade participants and spectators is the top priority during the parade. As a result, the following rules and regulations will be strictly enforced during staging and the parade. Failure to adhere to these regulations will result in an entry's ejection from the parade without refund. The Lebanon Parks Department has the right to decline a parade entry for any reason at any time as its sole discretion.

Regulations:

- No objects of any kind may be thrown from a moving vehicle or float. You may designate representatives from your group to walk beside your entry and hand items to the crowd but absolutely nothing can be thrown.
- Please clean up any trash or debris left by your entry in the staging area.
- Drives of all motorized vehicles must be at least 18 years old, licensed, and prepared to show their license to Lebanon Parks Department
