Mayor's Office
Lebanon, Indiana

July 10, 1961

On behalf of myself, the Common Council of the City of Lebanon, Indiana, and indeed all of the citizens of this community, I wish to have spread of record that herein I extend a tribute to Harry McCray, as he retires as an active member of the Lebanon Fire Department after 27 years of faithful and efficient service. All of us who have worked with Harry have had the greatest respect for him as an individual and as a fireman.

Harry leaves us with our warmest wishes for his retirement days. Of course, knowing him as we do, we feel sure that he will not retire in the true sense of the word. Harry will continue to be an active citizen, alert to the community problems; he will continue to display an interest in all youngsters. His many years of repairing their bicycles have endeared him to many hundreds of the youth of our city. Harry has also been a good friend of the dogs. He will always be remembered in connection with Chief, the white boxer who was also a member of the Fire Department. A good fireman, a friend of kids and dogs! What else could be expected of any man?

So, good luck, Harry. Thank you for your service. You'll be missed at the City Building.

Mayor
