RESOLUTION NO. 73-10

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION TO
EDGAR L. SMILEY FOR HIS YEARS
OF DEDICATED SERVICE TO THE
CITY OF LEBANON, INDIANA

This is out of place.

WHEREAS, the City of Lebanon, Indiana, did in 1956 begin a program to improve its sanitary sewer system including the construction of a new treatment plant and new interceptor sewers, and

WHEREAS, the City, during the period of construction, required the services of a person who was skilled in the field of construction to act as inspector on said project, and

WHEREAS, the City did employ Edgar L. Smiley as such inspector.

WHEREAS, Edgar L. Smiley did enter on said employment and because of his services, said construction was completed as specified by the engineers, and

WHEREAS, because of his knowledge and skill, Edgar L. Smiley was chosen as the Superintendent of said treatment plant and managed it with complete dedication until his retirement November 1, 1973, and

WHEREAS, in addition to his duties as Superintendent, Edgar L. Smiley has served the City in many other capacities, including that of Building Inspector, always being ready to assist in any responsibility assigned to him, and

WHEREAS, in addition to his service to the City, Edgar L. Smiley is a man who has served his community faithfully through many civic activities.
