

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE Common Council of the City of Lebanon, Indiana, that:

1. Memberships of cities in state and national associations of a civic, educational, or governmental nature which have as their purpose the betterment and improvement of municipal operations are properly budgeted and appropriated as Current Charges, Subscriptions and Dues in the accounts of the city.

2. In that the State Board of Accounts has now placed an extreme limitation on the interpretation of I.C. 18-5-7-1 the statute authorizing these memberships, it is now necessary to authorize alternate procedures acceptable to said State Board of Accounts. One, L.C. 18-6-12 commonly referred to as the "Promotion of Business" law is referred to in the City of Lebanon as "Mayor's Fund". The alternate applicable to cities is I.C. 18-1-1.5 and is commonly called the "Home Rule Law".

3. Therefore, under State of Indiana authorization granted by I.C. 18-1-1.5 the following organizations, associations, activities, et cetera, as listed herein, are approved memberships when properly budgeted by the appropriate Department, Office, or Activity under the heading Current Charges, Subscription and Dues. Listing herein does not in any way authorize an improper expenditure.

2. Indiana League of Municipal Clerks and Treasurers
3. International Association of Municipal Clerks
