

Ordinance No. 93-19

An Ordinance Prohibiting Littering and Vandalism in Public Areas or on Public Grounds and Prescribing Penalties for its Violation

WHEREAS, the City of Lebanon has recently completed several public works projects, including the reconstruction of the Prairie Creek Stormwater Drainage System; and

WHEREAS, such projects require the use of public funds; and

WHEREAS, the City recognizes a need to deter conduct which damages these public works projects and results in the spending of additional public funds for repair and/or security maintenance which should be unnecessary.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Common Council of the City of Lebanon, Boone County, Indiana, as follows:

1. It shall be unlawful for any person to litter, vandalize, deface or obstruct in any way public works projects, public grounds, public property, stormwater drainage projects, or public rights of way within the territorial limits of the City of Lebanon.

2. Violation of this Ordinance shall result in a minimum fine of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per occurrence and the cost of cleanup.

3. Parents and/or legal guardians and custodians shall be liable for the monetary loss caused by acts of children consistent with the provisions of State law.

4. Enforcement of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be in the Lebanon City Court upon the filing of a verified Complaint, approved by the City Attorney, and signed by any law enforcement officer, the City Building Inspector, City Fire Chief, City Street Commissioner, City Utilities General Manager, or Parks Director, or their authorized designees.

All of which is ordained this 10th day of January, 199 4. This Ordinance to become effective upon passage and publication as required by law.
